

FINISH THE LOVE STORY

Continue the chapter.

Finish one of the lines below — a moment, a feeling, a small story. Your words will be collected and read aloud at the end of the evening.

The first time I thought "these two belong together" was when —

I will never forget how you —

In ten years I see you —

One thing only I know about you —

If your love story were a book, it would be called —
