

THE MARRIAGE MANUAL

Build your own instruction manual for married life.

SOME ASSEMBLY REQUIRED

Together, create a funny little instruction manual for married life — full of everyday chaos, inside jokes and surprisingly useful wisdom.

I. DRAW · 1 MINUTE

Each player draws 1–3 component cards. The table draws 1 style card together. Read them out loud — fun beats logic.

II. BUILD · 5–8 MINUTES

Pick an everyday situation (e.g. “Monday morning,” “the surprise date”). Arrange your cards into a manual that’s logical enough to follow and absurd enough to laugh at. Stay true to your style card — that’s where the comedy lives.

III. PRESENT · 60–90 SECONDS

A volunteer or duo performs your manual for the room. Hold the style. Laughing along is mandatory.

IV. VOTE

Everyone rates with their star fan (1 · 3 · 5). Prizes go to the funniest, the most romantic and the most painfully accurate manual.

Winner: a small treat from the couple — bubbly, chocolate, soap.

Big group? Not every table has to present. Whoever wants the spotlight raises their style card — up to four or five tables take the “stage,” ninety seconds each. It stays light, from eight to eighty guests.

The Style Cards

HOW TO PRESENT IT · 1 SHEET

STYLE CARD

THE FLAT-PACK MANUAL

Like a flat-pack furniture guide: numbered steps, little stick-figure diagrams, almost no words.

STYLE CARD

THE TV COMMERCIAL

Pitch your guide like a 30-second ad: a jingle, a rhyme, far too much enthusiasm.

STYLE CARD

GRANDPA'S TALE

The way Grandpa would tell it: rambling wisdom, endless detail, at least three tangents.

STYLE CARD

THREE WORDS MAX

*Your whole guide: never more than three words per sentence.
Full stop.*

STYLE CARD

THE PRENUP

As a legal contract: numbered clauses, fine print, a signature line. Keep it funny.

STYLE CARD

EXPLAIN IT TO A 7- YEAR-OLD

So simple a child gets it. So silly the grown-ups lose it.

STYLE CARD

THE LOVE POEM

*Your guide is a poem: at least four lines, a rhythm, all the

THE MEDICINE LEAFLET

*Like a drug package insert:
side effects, dosage,
interactions, a stern
disclaimer.*

STYLE CARD

THE WILD CARD

*Your own way: invent how you perform — mime, rap, shadow play. Anything goes,
if you sell it with full conviction.*
